“Get your ducks in a row”

If you have participated in a webinar or training session from Gorveatte Consulting Inc., you probably heard me say, "Get your ducks in a row!"

It's a figure of speech to say “to organize things well”. When you know you have an audit upcoming (internal or from an external registration body) be sure to get your ducks in a row!

Be prepared so you don't "quack" under pressure during your next audit.
